ME AND MY FAMILY - HASSAN

Anja Hauberg, Denmark, 2013

14 min. | DK/Documentary | Children's films, Portrait films

Hassan and his family are refugees from Syria. They now live in Frederikshavn in the northern part of Denmark. Hassan is the best in his family at speaking Danish, and he often helps his parents when there is something they don't understand, and practice Danish words with them during dinner.
During the escape from Syria, Hassan and his family was torn apart, and for a long time they didn't see each other. Now they are back together again, and Hassan does everything he can to protect his little sister, who has told him how much she cried, when the police took her and their mother away from the family.
