THE SEASIDE HOTEL 1

Hans Fabian Wullenweber, Jesper W. Nielsen, Denmark, 2013

276 min. | TV series

The story takes place on Andersen's little seaside hotel by the North Sea in the most northern part of Jutland and depicts the lives of the colorful regular visitors and the local staff in the summers 1928-1933. The story revolves around the 18-year-old Fie, who in the series first episode gets hired as a maid. She only planned to stay for one summer, but the small hotel becomes part of her destiny, while the world goes from optimism to crisis, and the great big world outside heads towards disaster.
