

Milad Alami, Denmark, 2014

27 min. | DK/Short fiction

Simon lives with his mother in The North of Sweden. His mum is a body builder, who is working hard to get in shape for her next contest. Simon sacrifices everything to help her, but also realises that her body cannot hold out much longer. Simon finds himself in an impossible situation and has to make a very difficult decision. Either he has to leave his mother, knowing full well that she cannot cope by herself, or give up his own dreams and stay.
