BLACK HARVEST

Anders Refn, Denmark, 1993

120 min. | DK/Feature

Once again, the Gustav Wied literary oeuvre (see "The Baron") inspires Anders Refn to zoom in on looming social upheavals and decaying landed gentry moral standards. Hewing close to the biblically titled 1908 novel "And The Fathers Ate The Grapes", Refn uses the big canvas to paint family scenes of secret passions, dashed hopes, alcoholic abuse and the full gamut of acts of desperation.
