

Mette Skov, Denmark, 2015

5 min. | DK/Short fiction | Children's films, Animation

Little Tot and Ant are best friends. They do everything together, but it doesn't always turn out as they plan. What happens if you brake a window? And how do you get home again, when the wind has blown you far, far away? It is not always easy to be friends with somebody, how do you balance a relationship without going on compromise with yourself? All that and much more does Little Tot and Ant experience.
