

Jacob Tschernia, Denmark, 2017

30 min. | DK/Short fiction

15-year old Elise is home alone when the doorbell rings. A young guy answers in the other end. One of his friends has just crashed on his moped. Could they come up and call after help? Elise knows that he is one of the guys who has been hanging out on the street and who her parents have complained about. Still, she lets him in. While calling for help, another one of the boys turns up. Now a power play starts in the apartment.
