MOUNTAIN

Yaelle Kayam, Israel, 2015
 75 min. | Feature

A young woman lives with her husband and children in the Jewish cemetery on Jerusalem's Mount of Olives. Her life is a routine of housework. In the daytime, she is left alone on the mountain. At night, she tries to connect with her husband, but only feels great distance between them. One night, out of frustration she storms out of the house and strolls the cemetery. She is exposed to nightly events that evokes her suppressed desires and fears. The film combines elements of Gothic romance and explores the physical and spiritual predicament of a woman, in a tremendously charged location, at the crossroads of the world's monotheist religions.
