NOTHING HAPPENS

Michelle Kranot, Uri Kranot, Denmark, 2017

12 min. | Interactive projects | Animation, Virtual reality

It is freezing cold on the outskirts of town. Yet people gather. I watch them form a row across the horizon. We all wait for something to happen. However, nothing does... We have been assembled to witness an event. To participate in being seen. The spectacle of watching and being watched.

'Nothing happens' is both a cinematic and Virtual Reality experience which question the role of the spectator, by inviting the individual to participate in an event. The film is an observation and an invitation for contemplation while the VR allows us to choose our perspective, allows us to become absorbed in the unique atmosphere and participate. The project explores a different kind of narrative, a new way of being in a painting.
