Stefan Fjeldmark, Denmark, 2017

7 min. | DK/Short fiction | Children's films, Animation

The reindeer Platy has grown up in a Zoo and does not know the world at all. Platy manages to run away and soon he meets the cat Pus. They meet a gang of cats, and must soon flee from Copenhagen. By accident they end up in Finland. Here they meet the cool flying squirrel Teppo and his two crazy brothers, who sky dives with Go Pro cameras on their heads. Pus loves adventure and she is keener on flying than traveling on with Platy. Pus never gets to fly with the crazy flying squirrels, instead she learns that she misses Platy when he is not there and Platy ends up saving the day as he makes sky diving suits out of a plastic bag for both of them.
