MAN WITH CAMERA

Katia Forbert Petersen, Denmark, 1995

57 min. | DK/Documentary | Portrait films

¿Man with Camera¿ is a personal documentary by Katia Forbert Petersen. Through a portrait of her father, the Polish-Jewish cinematographer Wladyslaw Forbert, and making use of his life-long film photography, we are introduced to a part of history which not only depicts filmmaking but also major events in Europe and the world throughout the last century. Wladyslaw is now 80 years old, he is retired and lives in Denmark, but his pictures are still being broadcasted by TV-stations worldwide.
