

TWO BROTHERS

EN | DA

Javier Roldán, Spain, 2016

18 min. | Short fiction

Alonso and Jorge are two young brothers who live with their parents in the middle of the Castilian countryside. The death of Bosco, their beloved dog, lead them to think in the meaning of death and their feelings about it. With the willingness to prove they are not afraid of death, they embark in a risky prank in which danger lurks. A danger they are not aware of.
