CARSTEN SØSTED

(1973 -)

Born 1973, Denmark. Søsted worked as an assistant editor at Zentropa from 1997-2002, working on Lars von Trier's "Idioterne"/"The Idiots" and "Dancer in the Dark", Per Fly's "Bænken"/"The Bench" and Susanne Bier's "Elsker dig for evigt"/"Open Hearts". Freelance editor for television, various commercials, shortfilms, documentaries and feature films.

Co-writer with Rasmus V. Nielsen on the awardwinning short fiction "Lille mand"/"Little Man", recipient of honours in Giffoni, Chicago, and Buster, Copenhagen. Søsted's directorial debut "... og det var Danmark"/"Danish Dynamite" (2008), made with co-director Mads Kamp Thusltrup, won a GuldDok for Best Feature-length Dok at CPH:DOX.
