FRANK HVAM

(1970 -)

Comedian, actor, screenwriter. Born 12/9 1970.

Hvam got his breakthrough on national television in 1999 with the sketch show 'Casper og Mandrilaftalen', where he first collaborated with Casper Christensen. They continued their partnership with 'Langt fra Las Vegas' (2001-2003) and the quiz show 'Shooting Stars' (2004).

In 2005 Hvam and Christensen created the TV series 'Klown' (2005-2009), which became one of the greatest successes in Danish television. Hvam and Christensen both wrote the series and played the leading roles.

Hvam made his feature film debut with 'Klown - the Movie' (2010), which was a big commercial success. Hvam and Christensen continued the 'Klown' franchise with 'Klown Forever' (2015) and 'Klown the Final' (2020), while they also revived the series for a season in 2018. The duo also starred in the feature film 'Dan-Dream' (2017), which they also wrote.
