

Person

ERLEND E. MO

(1967 – 2021)

EN | DA

Born 1967, Norway. Studied literature and Scandinavian languages at Oslo University 1986-90, and film and TV at Volda University College 1990-92. Has produced and directed for NRK's Children and Youth Department and DR's Children and Youth Department.

Wrote and directed the fictional documentary 'Forbidden Love' (1998), awarded the Terje Vigen prize at the Norwegian Short Film Festival, nominated for the Dutch Prix Iris and participant at several other international festivals. 'Welcome to Denmark' (2003) was awarded Best Documentary at Odense, and was the only Nordic film represented at the EuropaCinema 2003 in Viareggio. 'Can You Die in Heaven?' (2005) was awarded the Youth Jury's Best Documentary at Odense Film Festival, Best Children's Doc at Pärnu, Estonia, and won a GuldDok for Best Documentary at CPH:DOX. 'My Eyes' (2006) won the IDFA Silver Cub Award, a GuldDok for Best Sound at CPH:DOX, Best Short Film at Sao Paolo and the Cinematic Vision Short Award at the SilverDocs AFI (Discovery Documentary Festival).

'Paradis' (2008) is a feature-length documentary co-directed with Sami Saif and Jens Loftager. The film premiered at Odense Film Festival. 'Four Letters Apart - Children in the Age of ADHD' (2013) was selected for CPH:DOX, Göteborg Film Festival and Hot Docs in Canada. 'Journey to Utopia' (2020) was selected for the nordic competition at CPH:DOX.

Filmography

Title	Year	Function	Category
Journey to Utopia	2020	Direction, Appearance, Screenplay, Cinematographer	DK/Documentary
Sport Kids	2015	Direction, Cinematographer	Documentary
Four Letters Apart - Children in the Age of ADHD	2013	Direction, Cinematographer	DK/Documentary
Sannhetsjegeren	2009	Direction, Script, Video photographer	Documentary
Paradise	2008	Direction	DK/Documentary
My eyes	2006	Direction, Script	DK/Documentary
Can you die in Heaven	2005	Direction, Script, Cinematography, Stills	DK/Documentary
Velkommen til Danmark	2003	Direction, Script, Cinematography, Sound	DK/Documentary

 PRINT

 DOWNLOAD PDF