METTE HEIDE

Producer. Born 10/10 1965.

Heide has worked as a producer since 1997. She made her debut as a producer on 'Cities for People' (2000). Since then she has produced a number of documentaries, amongst others Jørgen Leth's 'New Scenes from America' (2002), which was selected for Göteborg Film Festival and 'Dreamers' (2002), selected for Sao Paulo Documentary Film Festival.

She co-produced 'Queen of Versailles' (2012), which won the directing award in the documentary category at Sundance. Heide also produced the Netflix series 'Amanda Knox', which was nominated for an Emmy.
