

Person

FREDERIK JACOBI

EN | DA

Born 1977, Denmark. Trained as a cinematographer. Shot the film "Ghosts of Cité Soleil" (2006), recipient of the DGA Award, "Afghan Muscles" (2007), which won Best Documentary at AFI, the US film "Death in Love" (2008), selected for Sundance.

Jacobi directed the short film "The Sound of Plants Fighting for Life", shot in the Amazonas, with himself as lead actor. Co-director with Camilla Nielsson on "Cities on Speed - Mumbai Disconnected" (2009), selected for IDFA's Reflecting Images: Panorama.

Filmography

| Title                           | Year | Function                          | Category         |
|---------------------------------|------|-----------------------------------|------------------|
| Into the ice                    | 2022 | Cinematographer                   | DK/Documentary   |
| Shepherd Lonely                 | 2016 | Direction, Screenplay             | DK/Short fiction |
| Mumbai Disconnected             | 2009 | Direction, Cinematography, Stills | DK/Documentary   |
| Complaints Choir                | 2009 | Cinematography                    | DK/Documentary   |
| Riskær - avantgardekapitalisten | 2008 | Cinematography                    | DK/Documentary   |
| Roskilde                        | 2008 | Cinematography, Cinematographer   | DK/Documentary   |
| Evergreen                       | 2007 | Cinematography, Stills            | DK/Short fiction |
| The Killing                     | 2007 | Camera operator                   | TV series        |
| Afghan muscles                  | 2006 | Cinematography, Stills            | DK/Documentary   |
| Emmalou                         | 2006 | Cinematography                    | DK/Short fiction |
| Ghosts of Cité Soleil           | 2005 | Cinematography                    | DK/Documentary   |
| Elvira in a box                 | 2005 | First assistant camera            | DK/Short fiction |
| To Sleep                        | 2003 | Cinematography                    | DK/Documentary   |

PRINT

DOWNLOAD PDF