

Person

EN | DA

MARIANNE HOUGEN-MORAGA

Director. Graduated with a Master's degree in film studies from Copenhagen University. She also holds a master in screen documentary from Goldsmiths College.

Hougen-Moraga has directed a number of short documentaries, such as 'Hjemvendt' (2011), which premiered at CPH:DOX, and 'Sea of Sorrow – Sea of Hope' (2017), which was nominated for a Danish Robert Award for best short documentary. Her feature documentary debut is 'Songs of Repression' (2020), which she has directed with collaborator Estephan Wagner. The film won the main prize at CPH:DOX as well as the prize for best Chilean Film at Fic Valdivia and a Special Jury Mention at FiFiGrot in Toulouse.

Filmography

| Title                 | Year | Function                                  | Category       |
|-----------------------|------|---|----------------|
| Kids on the Silk Road | 2023 | Direction                                 | DK/Documentary |
| Songs of Repression   | 2020 | Direction, Cinematographer                | DK/Documentary |
| Last Dreams           | 2013 | Assistant director                        | DK/Documentary |
| Hjemvendt             | 2011 | Direction, Script, Cinematography, Stills | DK/Documentary |
| Lille Revolution      | 2010 | Direction, Cinematography                 | DK/Documentary |
| Min mors løfte        | 2007 | Direction                                 | DK/Documentary |

 PRINT

 DOWNLOAD PDF