DANIEL MÜHLENDORPH

(1986 –)

Producer. Born 16/5 1986 in Allinge. Graduated from The National Film School of Denmark in 2017 with the documentary 'Gennem drømmehinden' and the short 'Fædreland', which was also nominated for a Danish Robert Award. Before studying in Denmark, Mühlendorph lived in Los Angeles for two years while studying at The New York Film Academy.

Mühlendorph made his feature debut with 'Sons of Denmark' (2019) by Ulaa Salim. The film was selected for competition at the filmfestivals in Rotterdam and Göteborg. It won the best director award at Seattle Film Festival. He also produced the short film 'Maja' (2018), which won the award for best short at Tribeca Film Festival.

Since then, Mühlendorph has produced films such as 'Blockhagen' (2020) by Gigis, 'Persona Non Grata' (2021) by Lisa Jespersen and Krysantemum (2022) by Christian Bengtson.

Mühlendorph and Salim founded the production company Hyæne Film.
