

Person

EN | DA

GUY DAVIDI

Director, producer, photographer. Born 9/7 1978.

Davidi started working as a camera man in the film industry. In 2005 he began directing documentaries about the everyday life in the Israeli-Palestinian conflict. He directed the short documentaries 'In Working Progress' (2006) and 'A Gift from Heaven' (2008). 'Zramim Ktu'im' (2010) is his feature-length debut.

Davidi received international acclaim with 'Five Broken Cameras' (2011), which won the award for best director at the Sundance Film Festival in the category for World Cinema documentaries. The film subsequently received an Oscar-nomination for best documentary and won an Emmy at the International Emmy Awards.

He since directed 'Mixed Feelings' (2016) and the Danish co-production 'Senseless' (2018).

Filmography

Title	^Year	^Function	^Category
Innocence	2022	Direction, Director of Photography, Editor	DK/Documentary
Five Broken Cameras	2011	Direction, Producer, Editor	Documentary

 PRINT

 DOWNLOAD PDF