MAN UP! / MAND OP!

A growing group of men have had enough! For too long have women dominated society and men's lives – they have made them involuntarily childless and marginalized. Men's social value is less than sperm in a cup. Rasmus has created the secret underground army: Man Up! By day he works in a trade union, but by night he and his male friends are freedom fighters. They attack sperm banks, feminists, and gender-traitors. But then they accidentally take it too far – beyond the point of no return. At the same time, we begin to understand that not everything is to be believed and that the men's anger is rooted in broken hearts, loneliness, and sadness.

TO NEW BEGINNINGS / DET NYE ÅR

A group of old friends reunite for New Years Eve, as they have done so many times before. But one of their friends, Martin, is not present as he passed away in a tragic incident years ago. This evening, Martin's former girlfriend Nomi, introduces her new boyfriend, Finn, to the group. But Finn doesn't quite fit in, and with a solid lack of situational awareness, he asks all the wrong questions, gradually forcing the group to confront what they've suppressed and reflect on their relationships - and not least, themselves. It will be an evening they will never forget, but also an evening that might open a door to a new beginning for every one of them.

CAMBODIANSKE ØLDRØMME / CAMBODIANSKE ØLDRØMME

In Cambodia, major international breweries and local businessmen are battling to win the war over the growing beer market. Through aggressive advertising, young beer girls, and promises of cash prizes and growth, the population is encouraged to consume more and more alcohol in a country struggling with poverty and corruption. We follow an activist who takes on the beer industry, fighting to introduce a national alcohol law – an uneven battle. At the same time, we meet Cambodians who dare to dream that the beer industry might be their ticket to a different and better life as beer sellers, singers, and beer girls.

CAMBODIAN BEER DREAMS is Lauritz Nansens debut feature-length documentary, and though the story unfolds in south east asia, it is personal to him, sharing fate with his protagonist. Laurits Nansen is an acclaimed investigative journalist, turned self-taught documentarist over the last decade in documentary series.

IF LUCK WILL COME / HVIS LYKKEN VENDER

In Taliban-ruled Afghanistan, childhood ends abruptly at 14. For twelve-year-olds Zahra and Zalgai, a children's circus in Kabul offers a fleeting space of laughter, friendship, imagination and bold dreams in a world already closing in. Filmed over two transformative years, working with Afghani filmmakers on ground, If Luck Will Come captures this fragile passage from childhood to adulthood under current Taliban rule. As responsibility looms, the circus becomes Zahra and Zalgais final act of defiance. In a country where filming is increasingly restricted and internet access is being shut down to prevent contact with the outside world, the film stands as a rare witness, offering testimony to lives the world is not meant to see. It shows that, even when silenced, the voices of Afghan children endure.

IF LUCK WILL COME is Camille Bildsøe's first feature-length documentary. She has been working on the production side of documentaries for more than a decade. Her directional debut 'I Wish the World Was a Paper Plane' premiered at CPH:DOX 2021.

MENOPAUSE MYSTERY / MYSTERIET OM MENOPAUSEN

Director Louise Unmack Kjeldsen is in her early fifties when her life is turned upside down. Once active and busy, she suddenly finds herself struggling with insomnia, sadness, and brain fog. When she realizes the link between her declining estrogen levels and her mental state; it marks the beginning of a journey into the science one of the most unexplored areas of women's health: Menopause. Archival footage and animation place menopause in a historical and cultural context, weaved with voiced experiences from women all over the world, exposing taboos and patriarchal biases, and the crucial mapping of the current scientific discoveries, societal constraints and ethical dilemmas.

MENOPAUSE MYSTERY is Louise Unmack Kjeldsen's second feature-length documentary. Her debut 'Fat Front' launched at IDFA in 2019. Louise Unmack Kjeldsen has directed shorter format documentaries and series for Danish broadcasters since 1997.

MOMMY'S BOYS / MORS DRENCE

MUMMY'S BOYS tells the haunting story of Jette, a cruel mother whose grip on her five sons endures decades after her death. When her son Adrian discovers a farewell letter condemning her three eldest children and praising the youngest two, he's left with her chilling promise: "I'll be back." In the film, Jette quite literally returns to face her sons and the words that continue to haunt them. It is a raw and moving story about a mother and her sons, filled with humor, tenderness, and cinematic surprises.

This is Jesper Dalgaard's second feature, a raw but playful hybrid film. An entertaining take on trauma therapy bending genres and changing time and place. His debut feature-length documentary 'Kandis for Life' (2022) launched at Göteborg Film Festival and was a hit upon domestic release before picking up several national film awards.

A PLACE IN THE RING

/ EN PLADS I MANEGEN

World famous circus artist and horse trainer, Katja Schumann, faces the end of an era. Raised in a prestigious European circus dynasty, she dedicated her life to the art of performance horses, an intricate craft passed down through generations. From 1981 – 2004 Katja was a main act in The Big Apple Circus in NYC, while making a family with the circus' director Paul Binder. Today her children have banned the circus and Katja faces the ultimate question: How do you pass on a life's work when there's really no one to inherit or even appreciate the art of it? A dazzlingly beautiful and unsentimental tribute to circus life, the value of tradition and change and the emotional struggle of letting go. The world of yesterday seems nowhere as vivid as in the sawdust rituals of the ring.

A PLACE IN THE RING is Anne Svejgard Lund's feature debut. The film premiered in Danish Cinemas in Nov. 2025 to raving reviews. Anne Svejgaard Lund holds a Master from National film & Television school in London.

CHRISTIANIA / CHRSTIANIA

In 1971, 800 individuals occupied abandoned barracks in Copenhagen, forming Christiania, an alternative society. "Tales from Christiania" explores this community, shaped by anarchist hippie culture, and governed by consensus democracy. The film captures the daring effort by young women to shut down Pusher Street, Christiania's hash market, which evolved into Denmark's most violent area. With unprecedented access to meetings, it highlights Christiania's past and present struggles, showcasing tales like the biker gang attack and the attempt to burn the freetown. Through engaging storytelling, the documentary reflects on the challenges and impact of consensus democracy and Christiania's ongoing journey.

CHRISTIANA marks Karls Forchhammer's debut feature-length documentary. The film will world premiere in CPH:DOX main competition DOX:AWARD. Karl graduated from the National Film & television school in London in 2019. His short film 'Ravens' won a Grierson Award as best student film in 2019.

TRINE ON FIRE / TRINE ON FIRE

The flames lick up the wall as Trine, then 34 years old, watches in a mix of horror and a strange sense of calm. The fire sent her into the closed wards of forensic psychiatric care. Eleven years later, Trine stands on the brink of a new beginning, but how do you move forward when the path you know is marked by nothing but selfdestructive detours? Her parents, once her safe harbor, are now shaped by mistrust, and Trine wrestles with guilt and a nagging doubt about her own sanity. For three years, Trine has worked on a raw and unflinching performance – a piece meant to reveal her deepest truth – to her parents, the world, and, maybe most importantly, herself. To set herself free. Trine voices the film, but Alexander Linds empathic touch and creative pov is thoroughly expressed in a layer of animated sequences and his conversations with Trine throuought the film.

Director Alexander Lind's second feature documentary following 'The Light' which premiered in Rotterdam Film Festival in 2024.

THE WAR WE CARRY / KRIGEN VI BÆRER

Lifeaffirming and profound, the film portrays everyday family life in Myanmar, heavily burdened by war. Myanmar has been at war since gaining independence in 1948, driven by ethnic insurgencies, escalating into fullscale civil war following the military coup in 2021. Unfolding six pivotal years in Myanmar's history from 2019- 2025, the director worked closely with an anonymous local filmmaker, to tell this story. A story about Hninn, only 11-years old when the team starts filming, and her close family, living in remote jungles of rural Myanmar, drawing strength from a deep-rooted faith in Buddhism and the concept of Karma. A disturbing setting for a most recognizable story about family ties and love.

Kaspar Astrup Schröder is a self-taught award winning director and editor. His latest documentary 'Dear Tomorrow' premiered at SXSW 2025. He takes great interest in Asia, where many of his films unfolded: 'The Invention Of Dr. Nakamats' (2009) 'Waiting for the Sun' (2017) 'Rent A Family Inc.' (2012).

The Danish Film Institute is the national agency supporting and encouraging Danish film and cinema culture.

We support the development, production and distribution of Danish films and offer funding for international co-productions.

Support programmes extend to digital games, film education and promotion at international film festivals. A minimum of 25 percent of all subsidies are earmarked for children and youth films.

Situated in central Copenhagen, the Danish Film Institute houses the national Cinematheque and also includes a library, a stills and posters archive and a film studio for children to explore the craft of filmmaking.

We manage the film archives and run the streaming sites filmcentralen.dk, stumfilm.dk and danmarkpaafilm.dk.
